FAO-IFAD-WFP Working Together for Gender Equality

Eve Crowley (FAO)
on behalf of the Gender Focal Points
of FAO (Marcela Villarreal/Eve Crowley),
IFAD (Annina Lubbock/Maria Hartl) and WFP (Isatou Jallow)

Rome, 1 July 2010

Main message

- most solid collaboration among the 3 agencies

- build on each other's comparative advantages

- complementaries through our different mandates

Four areas of collaboration

- Advocacy

- Capacity Development

- Research/Knowledge sharing

- Coordination

IFAD
INTERNATIONAL
FUND FOR AGRICULTURAL DEVELOPMENT

WFP
United Nations
World Food Programme

FAO
FIAT PANIS

Advocacy

- ECOSOC:
- Global preparatory meeting for the Annual Ministerial Review
- High Level Segment (side event, joint statement, declaration)
- Joint celebrations (IWD)

Advocacy: future

- Joint advocacy strategy

- Commission for the Status of Women 2012: Rural Women

Capacity Development

- updated SEAGA training in country

- share experts, training space, and curricula

Future: Capacity Development

- Joint roll-out of UN wide mandatory basic gender training
- Include food, agriculture, rural issues in advanced UN training
- Joint briefing of heads of agency

IFAD
INTERNATIONAL FUND FOR AGRICULTURAL DEVELOPMENT

WFP
United Nations World Food Programme

FAO
FIAT PANIS

Research and Knowledge Sharing

- State of Food and Agriculture 2010/11: Women and Agriculture

Future: Research and Knowledge

Possibilities:

- Gender and small-scale agriculture: the future generation

- Rural women's care burden and agricultural productivity

Coordination

WFP

- 2007-8 WFP Evaluation
- 2010-11 action plan
- 2011 evaluation

FAO

- 2008-09 Strategic Framework
- 2010-11 Gender Audit and Evaluation

IFAD

- Gender Policy
- 2009-10 Gender Evaluation and Benchmarking

Coordination

- Rome-based: monthly
- UN wide: IANGWE, yearly

Working together

- in Rome and with the rest of the UN

- has greatly benefited all three agencies (complementarities and comparative advantages)

- We are committed to continue!

Thank you

FAO: Marcela Villarreal/ Eve Crowley

IFAD: Annina Lubbock/ Maria Hartl

WFP: Isatou Jallow