Haiti Country Strategic Plan 2024 – 2028
Informal consultation

28 July 2023
HAITI IS FACING AN ACUTE AND COMPLEX CRISIS

- Unprecedented violence and lockdowns
- Economic crisis
- Return of cholera
- Weather hazards and earthquakes
- Acute food insecurity has tripled since 2017
- Humanitarian needs are the highest since the 2010 earthquake
STRATEGIC SHIFTS AND IMPROVEMENTS IN THE CSP

- Conflict sensitivity
- Localization
- Systems Strengthening
- Climate action
- Digitalization
WFP school feeding 100 percent home grown by 2028, up from 45 percent currently.

SIMAST registry to cover 70 percent of the population in 2028, up from 30 percent currently.

30 percent of the WFP emergency contingency stock sourced locally, it is exclusively imported currently.

75 percent of distributions implemented by local NGOs, up from 57 percent currently.

WFP transfers are 65 percent cash overall over the life of the CSP compared to 51 percent currently.

WFP CBT is 75 percent digital by 2028, up from 50 percent currently.
The United Nations Sustainable Development Cooperation Framework (UNSDCF) 2023-2027

Haiti Country Strategic Plan (2024–2028)

Strategic Alignment

- Agriculture Development
- Food Sovereignty and Nutrition Security
- Environment and climate change
- Gender Equality
- Social Protection
- Social policies include DRR and cc mitigation
- Sustainable and Inclusive Economic Development
- State of Law and Social Cohesion
- Reduced Humanitarian Needs

Haiti’s National Strategic Development Plan
The CSP is streamlined and interconnected.

SO1: Vulnerable crisis-affected Haitians meet essential needs before, during, and after shocks.

SO2: Vulnerable children and households meet dietary diverse needs all year.

SO3: Strengthened livelihoods and improved resilience to shocks.

SO4: Improved policies and stronger systems to address food insecurity and disaster risk.

SO5: Reliable logistics, coordination, on-demand support for humanitarian and development partners.

WFP is fundamental to the humanitarian response.

Transition of beneficiaries; Nutrition.

WFP is fundamental to the humanitarian response.

EWS, shock-responsive SP; cc adaptation; AA/EPR.

Strengthened social protection.

World Food Programme.