➤ Annual Performance Report for 2005

General Rule VII.2 states: “Each year the Executive Director shall submit to the Board for its approval an Annual Report and other reports as directed by the Board”. Further, Governance recommendation (h), approved by the Board at its Third Regular Session in 2000 (decision 2000/EB.3/1—Follow-up to Executive Board Decision 2000/EB.A/6 on Governance), states: “An Annual Performance Report should be developed” based on the Biennial Management Plan previously approved. An interim Annual Performance Report (APR) for 2003 (WFP/EB.A/2004/4-A) was submitted for consideration in 2004 and the Board recognized that it “reflected in its substance the scope and function of the new governance arrangements” (WFP/EB.A/2004/9). It was also noted that the APR, which meets the requirements set out in General Rule VII.2, will replace the Annual Report of the Executive Director, commencing with the APR 2004 (WFP/EB.A/2004/5-F).

The APR 2005 is the major accountability tool for monitoring and reporting on annual performance compared with the plans set out in the 2004–2007 Strategic and the 2004–2005 Biennial Management Plans. Part I of the APR discusses the strategic context in which WFP works and main challenges faced in 2005, as requested by the Board (Bureau meeting, December 2004). Part II provides highlights of WFP performance in 2005 with a focus on main results by strategic priority and five main operations. Part III highlights achievements for the five Strategic Priorities, including outcome-level results, and for the nine Management Priorities. Lessons are incorporated throughout the document in addition to a more in depth discussion of lessons in Part IV. The Annexes presents WFP's performance framework, and additional data on staffing, contributions and donors, food procurement, operational expenditures by region, country and category for 2005.

5. Policy Issues

a) Harmonized Country Programme Approach

The United Nations Development Group (UNDG) has developed options for improving the harmonized country programme approval process, in response to General Assembly resolutions calling for greater coherence of United Nations development activities at the country level. The Board decided at its Second Regular Session in 2005 that it would return to the Common Country Programme Approach at its Annual Session in 2006 at the latest, and invited the Bureau to examine with the assistance of the Secretariat how the Board's oversight and budget responsibilities could be safeguarded under this new approach. A document responding to this request and reflecting consultations among all the UNDG Executive Committee funds and programmes will be submitted to the Board for approval.
