Rome-based Agency Collaboration and CFS

Induction Session for Members and Observers of the WFP Executive Board 16 January 2017

Mihoko Tamamura, Director Rome-based Agencies and Committee on World Food Security (CFS)

Roles and responsibilities

Who's who in PGR

- Created effective 1 February 2013
- Take charge of relations with the three Rome-based agencies (RBAs)
 WFP, FAO and IFAD and the Committee on World Food Security (CFS)
- Two distinctive functions within:
 - RBA collaboration internal/external coordination (Principal/Executive level meetings, joint RBA positioning in global processes), monitoring/reporting, knowledge management & sharing, RBA governing bodies, etc.
 - Lucie Kanova/ Neal Pronesti/ Jacopo Valentini
 - Support to CFS financial and technical support to the CFS Secretariat, follow relevant CFS processes, etc.
 - Giammichele De Maio (CFS Secretariat)
 - Director
 - Overall management
 - Advisor to the CFS Bureau

Achievements - Global Level and Thematic Areas

The RBAs collaborate in several global initiatives, global policy fora, and in a wide range of thematic areas.

Global Level Collaboration includes:

The 2030 Agenda, COP22, CFS, G7, G20, Habitat III, UNGA, WHS, and the Zero Hunger Challenge

Thematic Areas include:

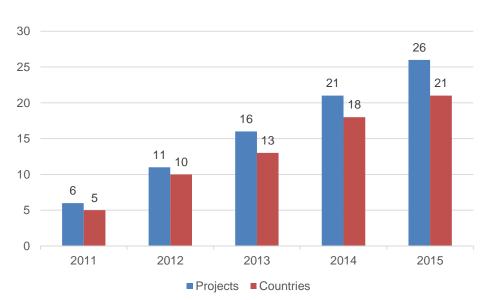

Climate Change, Data and Statistics, Food Losses and Waste, Gender, Nutrition, Purchase for Progress, Resilience, Social Protection, and South-South and Triangular Cooperation.

Increased collaboration at country-level

Operational Collaboration

- In 2015, RBAs collaborated on 26 projects in 21 countries;
- Collaboration with FAO & IFAD is steadily increasing;
- RBAs will continue to work together in areas including but not limited to: climate change, gender, south-south and triangular cooperation, and emergency preparedness, etc.;
- Priority areas for RBA collaboration include: country-level impelmentation of the 2030 Agenda; nutrition; resilience; data and statistics; and joint technical support to the CFS.

Joint paper on RBA Collaboration: scope and outline

- Membership of the three RBAs requested a joint paper be prepared outlining the agencies' collaboration and how they will support countries in achieving the goals of the Agenda 2030.
- Objective: To present a common vision, outlining renewed and strengthened commitment to work together at country, regional and global level.
- Highlighting: Distinctive strengths, comparative advantages, opportunities and examples of robust collaboration.
- A series of concrete actions outlined in the paper.

RBA collaboration - Way Forward

- Operationalizing the joint RBA paper;
- Continued dialogue at regional and national level;
- Working together to achieve Zero Hunger and the SDGs;
- Advocating for common goals and targets;
- Continued joint support to the CFS;
- Exploring new collaborations –e.g. migration, desertification;
- Learning from best practices and challenges.

World Food Programme

